E-Commerce Actions Overview

This article applies to:

Max Classic

The actions area is where you can set up internal commands that respond and take actions when someone purchases or for billing. This takes the manual work out of the follow-up that happens when either of these activities happens.

Your browser does not support HTML5 video.