Infusionsoft by Keap is now Max Classic

Infusionsoft was officially renamed to Max Classic on February 1, 2021, and your edition SKU and billing statement will now reflect the name change. Our website has also been updated for this change. Nothing will change in your app besides the product name and logo. All of your features, functionality and data will remain the same.

Bug fixes

- Monthly subscriptions scheduled to bill on January 1, 2021 billed on December 31, 2020 and January 1, 2021. (Known Issue 2274078)
 - Campaigns containing unpublished sequences placed after decision diamonds queued contacts in the unpublished sequence immediately instead of waiting for the sequence to be published before queueing contacts.
 - Campaign Builder's webpage automation goal was not triggered when contacts with the tracking cookie visited a page containing the tracking script.
 - Payments received via the PayPal Commerce integration did not include the purchaser's address in the PayPal portal's transaction details.
