Bug fixes

- Sometimes there would be a “Caution: You Were Sent To This Page From An Unverified Source” message when working in the Max Classic app.
  - When importing a campaign from the Marketplace that had a Decision Diamond rule configured with a “Contact's -> Contact Fields -> Owner is empty”, the campaign would not publish.
  - When changing subscriptions from one version to another, the “My Account” page would not reflect the updated app version.
  - When clicking “My Account” to update credit card information, there was an error message that prevented being able to update billing information.
  - When making a subscription update through the Mobile app, the subscription change wasn't reflected.
