Reschedule a broadcast

When a broadcast email has been scheduled for the future, you can reschedule the broadcast to a different date or time if the originally scheduled time is not within 30 mins of the current time. Learn more

Bug fixes

- When attempting to view or edit a Sales Template on a referral partner record in Max Classic, users were shown an error
- When adding a negative payment to an order, an error was occurring that lead to incorrect values for amount due
- Adding a dashboard widget produced an error
