January 20, 2022 | Max Classic 🔗

This article applies to:

Bug Fixes

- Some successful credit card charges that were processed through Authorize.Net did not pass the customer info.
- When a merchant account under other credit card processors is deleted while it's set as the default option, the quick sale in a contact record still listed the merchant with (invalid) next to it and the default merchant account for manual orders setting in e-commerce > settings > orders became deselected.